Weſtminſter, December 3.

THE Parliament met here this Day; and Her Majeſty being come to the Houſe of Peers, and ſeated on the Throne in Her Royal Robes, with the uſual Solemnity, Mr. Aſton, Deputy Gentleman-Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage to the Houſe of Commons, requiring their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers, whither they came accordingly; and Her Majeſty was pleaſed to make a moſt Gracious Speech to both Houſes, which follows:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Hope We are all Met together at this Time, with Hearts truly Thankful to Almighty God for the Glorious Succeſſes with which He has Bleſſed Our Arms and thoſe of Our Allies through the whole Courſe of this Year, and with Serious and Steady Reſolutions to Proſecute the Advantages We have Gain'd, till We Reap the Deſired Fruit of them, in an Honourable and Durable Peace.

The Goodneſs of God has brought this Happy Proſpect ſo much nearer to Us, that if We be not wanting to Our ſelves, We may, upon good Grounds, Hope to See ſuch a Ballance of Power Eſtabliſh'd in Europe, that it ſhall no longer be at the Pleaſure of one Prince to Diſturb the Repoſe and Endanger the Liberties of this Part of the World.

A Juſt Conſideration of the preſent Poſture of Affairs, of the Circumſtances of Our Enemies, and the good Diſpoſition of Our Allies, muſt needs Excite an Uncommon Zeal, and Animate Us to Exert Our Utmoſt Endeavours at this Critical Conjuncture.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

As I am Fully Perſwaded You are all of this Mind, ſo I muſt Earneſtly Deſire You to grant Me Supplies ſufficient for Carrying on the War next Year in ſo Effectual a Manner, that We may be Able to Improve every where the Advantages of this Succeſsful Campaign: And I Aſſure You I ſhall make it My Buſineſs to See All You Give Apply'd to thoſe Ends with the greateſt Care and Management.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

In Purſuance of the Powers Veſted in Me by Act of Parliament, both in England and Scotland, I have Appointed Commiſſioners to Treat of an Union between the Two Kingdoms; and tho' this be a Work of ſuch a Nature as cou'd not but be Attended with great Difficulties, yet ſuch has been the Application of the Commiſſioners, that they have Concluded a Treaty, which is at this Time before the Parliament of Scotland; And I Hope the Mutual Advantages of an Entire Union of the Two Kingdoms will be found ſo Apparent, that it will not be long before I ſhall have an Opportunity of Acquainting You with the Succeſs which it has Met with there.

Your Meeting at this Time being Later than Uſual, I cannot Conclude without Earneſtly Recommending to You to Give as much Diſpatch to the Publick Affairs as the Nature of them will Admit, it being of the Greateſt Conſequence, that both Our Friends and Our Enemies ſhould be Fully Convinced of Your Firmneſs, and the Vigour of Your Proceedings.

Lisbon, November 25. N. S. Mr. Methuen, Her Majeſty of Great Britain's Envoy Extraordinary, arrived here the 22d Inſtant, on board the Newcaſtle Man of War, from Genoa, having been 5 Weeks in his Paſſage. We have received an Account, That the Ipſwich, which was ſent from hence ſome time ago with Money and other Neceſſaries for the Confederate Army in Spain, arrived in 6 Days at Alicant, where thoſe Supplies were put on Shore, and ſhe is daily expected back again. Capt. Price, on board the Somerſet, with 3 or 4 other Men of War, came into our Port this Day from Cartagena. Monſieur du Bay, with a Body of 5 or 6000 of the Enemy, came lately from Badajox into the Neighbourhood of Alcantara, with a Deſign, as was believed, to have attacked that Place; but they are ſince returned to their former Quarters without making any Attempt. A Captain of Horſe, and ſeveral others who have quitted the Enemy's Service, and are come hither from Badajox, report, That they had an Account there of the Earl of Galway's having fallen upon a ſtrong Body of the Enemy's Troops near Albacete, and entirely cut off 8 Regiments, and put the reſt of them to flight: And that another Detachment of their Troops, of 2 Regiments of Horſe, and 4 of Foot, having plundered and burnt ſeveral Towns in Murcia, the Inhabitants of the Country took up Arms againſt them, and being joined by ſome of the Confederate Troops, they attacked and totally routed the Enemy; which good News we hope ſhortly to receive from ſuch Hands as may be depended on.

Turin, Nov. 17. N. S. On the 7th Inſtant our Duke joined Prince Eugene at Fraſcinetto, near Cazal, and Orders were immediately given for making the neceſſary Preparations for the Siege of this laſt Place. The 16th the Town of Cazal ſurrendred; but the Caſtle holding out ſtill, the Diſpoſitions are made for attacking it. The Weather being wholly unfit for Action, his Royal Highneſs intends, as ſoon as this Siege is over, to return hither, and the Troops will march into Winter Quarters, the Horſe having theirs aſſigned them on the Frontiers of the Milaneze and Montferrat, and the Foot at Quieri, Aſti, Coni, and the neighbouring Towns, and in the Vallies of Aouſta and Lucerne. His Royal Highneſs has given Orders for the raiſing of 4 Battalions of Foot, one to be added to his Regiment of Guards, the reſt to three other Regiments, and for getting every thing in readineſs for an early Campaign the next Year. Count Simeoni being ſent with a Detachment to attack Mortara, that Town and Caſtle ſurrendred upon his Approach; and there are now in the whole State of Milan and its Dependencies only the Caſtles of Milan, Cazal, and Tortona, and the Towns of Cremona and Valenza, in the Enemy's poſſeſſion, and thoſe are either beſieged or blocked up by our Troops, except Cremona.

Venice, Nov. 26. The Imperial Forces that lay before Modena have taken the Town by Storm; and having been reinforced with 4000 German Foot from the Dutchy of Parma, they hope ſoon to be Maſters of the Caſtle alſo, into which, part of the Gariſon retired, and will afterwards march into Winter Quarters. The Prince of Vaudemont and General Medavi continue at Mantua, and their Forces are for the moſt part poſted in the Neighbourhood of that Place. Signior Erizzo and Signior Piſani ſet out from hence the 7th Inſtant on their Embaſſy to England.

Berlin, Dec. 4. The Princeſs Royal of Pruſſia arrived here the 27th paſt from Hanover, and was met at ſome diſtance out of Town by the King, the Prince Royal her Husband, the Margraves his Majeſty's Brothers, and all the Great Officers of State, the Nobility, and other Perſons of Quality, that are in Town. The next Day the Marriage-Ceremony was performed with the uſual Solemnity; and there have ſince been ſeveral Balls and other Entertainments at Court upon this Occaſion.

Francfort, Dec. 5. On the 20th paſt the Imperial Army having repaſſed the Rhine, part of the Troops marched into the Lines of Stolhoffen, and the reſt to the Quarters aſſigned them. The Sieurs Erizzo and Piſani, Ambaſſadors from the Republick of Venice to Her Majeſty of Great Britain, arrived here the 3d Inſtant, and were complimented by our Magiſtrates: To morrow they proceed on their Journey to Holland, in order to paſs over from thence into England.

Hague, Dec. 10. N. S. On the 27th of the laſt Month the States of Holland and Weſtfriſeland adjourned to the 12th Inſtant. A great Council of War was held lately at Bruſſels, wherein Meaſures were concerted for the diſpoſing all things in ſuch manner as that our

Forces

Forces may at any time be ſoon got in a readineſs to prevent any Attempt of the Enemy during the Winter, or improve any favourable Opportunity of annoying them. Two Deputies of the States General are gone to Amſterdam, to give Directions for the providing of Tranſport-ſhips for a conſiderable Number of Recruits that are to be ſent to Portugal. They write from Vienna, That an Action had happened the 12th paſt near Egerſee, beyond the little River Sata, on the Frontiers of Stiria, between a Body of Imperial Militia and one of Hungarians, wherein the former was worſted; and that General Rabutin had been obliged to raiſe the Siege of Caſchau. Letters from Francfort of the 5th inſtant ſay, That Prince Lewis of Baden was ſo ill at Raſtadt, that there was no Hopes of his Recovery. Thoſe from Italy give an Account of the Duke of Savoy's having taken the Town of Cazal, wherein he found 1400 French, moſt of them ſick and wounded; the reſt, being 900 in number, retired into the Caſtle, of which his Royal Highneſs hoped to be Maſter in a few Days. Letters from Stockholme of the 20th paſt bring Advice, That the Czar had raiſed the Siege of Weybourg, after having been near 3 Weeks before that Place with an Army of 20000 Men.
